

Independent Film and Short Submission and Public Performance License

The Dallas, Texas convention "All-Con" screens independent films and shorts in the Video Theater and in-house closed-circuit television during the convention.

There is a membership fee to attend the convention. No additional fee is charged. In some instances, attendance will be restricted by age due to content.

Films and shorts presented at the convention may be accompanied by contact, sales, and promotional literature.

Feature submissions must be provided on a Region 0 formatted DVD. Additional trailers, teasers, and promos may accompany the feature DVD on DVD, CD, or VHS media. Additional materials will be used to promote the Fan Feature Room in advance of the convention.

By submitting a feature, the responsible party is granting All-Con a public performance license (PPL).

All materials and media submitted become the property of the convention and will not be returned. One submission form must accompany each feature submitted. Multiple submissions may be mailed together.
